Do you think it's funny that one of these heartless disabled did this to me?

URL: <https://twitter.com/xoMalese/status/678424927163170816>

Yeah, one of these disabled is making me fry, because he's bored and wanted to promote his peers to a few celebrities. I'm glad you get your laughs off of it.

These disabled think they're God. You don't really think God or Jesus would do something like this instead of ending all wars?!

Do you still not get that the disabled just set this up to promote his peers? Do you think I wanted this? First the disabled pushed me open completely on Dec 21st 2012 and he made me think he's Jesus and I have to help him and asked me if I would die for him. That was around from around 12 – 2 AM. Then somewhere around 2.30 and 3.00 AM he pushed me to write you and your mother. The disabled can make you believe anything.

Children of darkness?

Probably not too old, no. But that's one of the disabled's fault, because he needed to use someone to promote the Indigo community. He needed a show dog! Yeah, funny how 6/9 is also the day I was conceived.

Do you think the disabled love? Do you have any idea how broken the disabled who can do this must be? One of the disabled set this all up. They are proud of being monsters and use other people to promote themselves so blatantly in front of all you “celebrities”. The fact alone that they dare to touch anyone and hurt a dying man like shows that they are murderers and would kill someone. On top of that the monster ruined my whole life. They all have to be stopped.

I wish the police would do something against these disabled, but they don't even believe me. These disabled can do whatever the hell they want with other people. If I had one wish, I want all law enforcement agencies to find these disabled before they can "touch" someone else and ruin their lives like mine. Just because they're born like that, they think that gives them the right to judge others. Funny though, that I never really hurt anyone. I couldn't even make fun of others like you and your friends. You're all great role models for your fans...
